

Member Code Of Conduct

A

- You are individually responsible to:
- a. Act consistently with CSPA's purpose: and
 - b. not cause any harm or detriment to the public image of CSPA.

B

- As a minimum, you are to become familiar with and strive to fulfil the following:
- a. The duty to exercise powers in good faith in the interest of the community as a whole and for a proper purpose; and
 - b. the duty not to misuse information.

C

CSPA members strive to help build a strong culture within the community based on the importance of openness, honesty, fostering trust and mutual respect.

D

You will relate to and communicate with the employees through the General Manager, who may however, as a matter of mutual convenience, delegate another staff member to deal with or assist members, either generally or on particular matters.

E

Behave with dignity and not bully, shout, abuse, intimidate, belittle or harass fellow members, CSPA employees or Office Bearers.

F

Treat all people associated with CSPA, including Board members, volunteers, partners, external stakeholders and other members with respect.